

Daly attends Canadian Grand Prix

INDECK driver, Conor Daly will attend the Canadian Grand Prix this weekend as a guest of Bernie Ecclestone. On Thursday evening he attended the F1 Gala Soiree charity event at Gare Windsor Station that raised $500,000 for local charities.

Daly currently leads the Formula Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear after three consecutive wins.

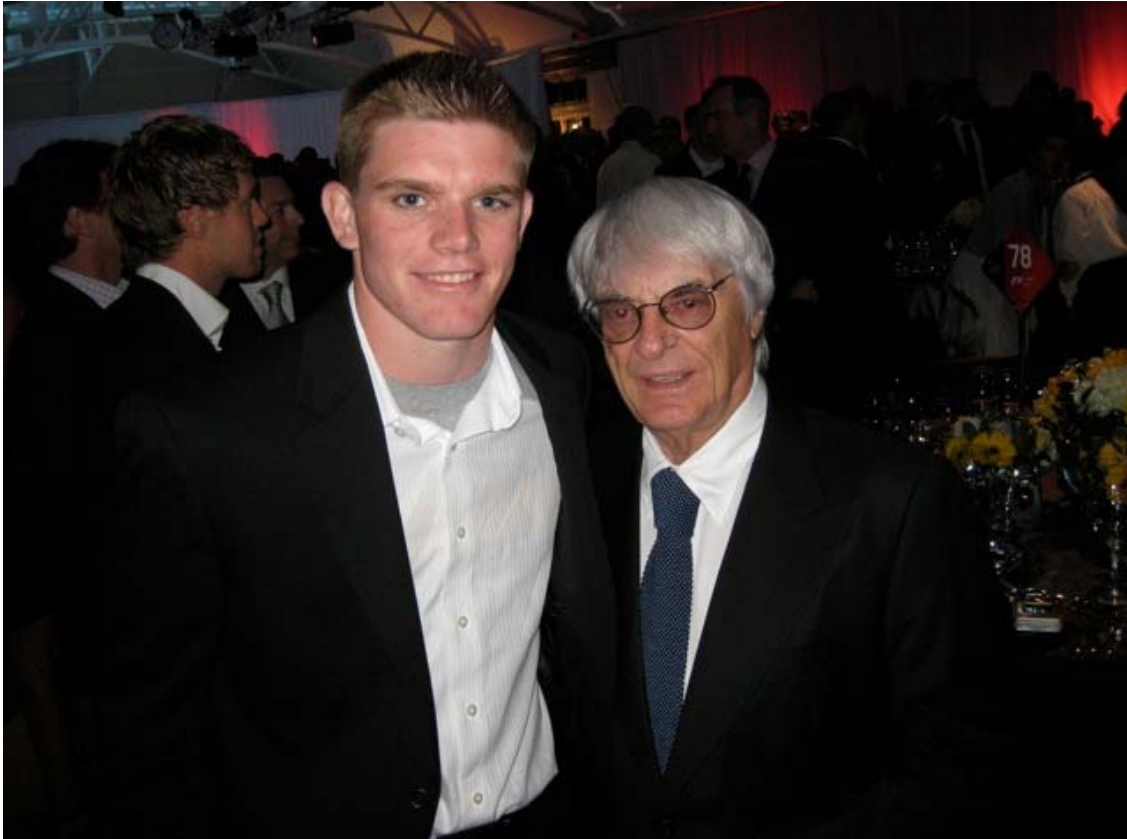

Photo of Conor Daly & Bernie Ecclestone, Chairman & CEO Formula One Management

In 2009 Daly finished third in the Formula Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear as a member of the MAZDASPEED driver development ladder system. In 2008 he won the Walter Hayes Formula Ford Trophy in England for Team USA, the Ontario Formula Ford Rookie of the Year title and the Mazda Skip Barber National Championship. Daly is sponsored by: INDECK, The College Network, Merchant Services LTD and Tom Lange Company with additional support from; St. Vincent Sports Performance, Alpinestars, Electric eyewear and Arai helmets.