

Remarkable win for Conor Daly

Just two weeks after clinching his first two motorsports championships, 13 year old Cytomax driver Conor Daly received special dispensation and stepped up the senior division to compete in the Spec TAG class at the inaugural TAG World Championships.

Daly qualified on the pole and won his heat, pre-final and final. It was a fitting end to a remarkable season that saw his win total rise to 15 races.